

Washington State Health Benefit Exchange

Role of Agents and Brokers Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) of the Health Benefit Exchange

---

Membership

The Role of Agents and Brokers TAC was appointed by the HBE Board on June 13, 2012 and will consist of the following members:

- Dave Gyll – Conover Insurance
- Nancy Frost- Propel Insurance
- Bryan Marsh – Regence BlueShield
- Nita Petry – Gallagher Benefit Services, Inc.
- Harald Schot – LifePlan Financial Inc.
- John Hamje, ex-officio – Office of the Insurance Commissioner

Purpose/Structure

Members of the Role of Agents and Brokers TAC provide expertise, experience and professional perspectives related to developing the Role of Agents and Brokers in the Exchange. Items for discussion are passed down from the Board and requested to be considered by the TAC. The TAC will deliberate and provide comments to the Board Policy and/or Operations Committees. All TACs are ad hoc committees that are created and disbanded as issues come up and are resolved.

Exchange staff coordinates TAC meetings and create the agendas based on Board and Board Committee discussions.

Role of Agents and Brokers TAC meetings are held via teleconference call and occur approximately every three weeks. The teleconference calls are open to the public. TAC meeting agendas, as well as meeting notes, will be posted on the Exchange website.

If a member of the Role of Agents and Brokers TAC leaves the Committee, Board members submit nominations to replace the type of organization that had been represented. Changes to the Role of Agents and Brokers TAC must be approved by the Board.
